PREFACE

This publication of WHO's WHO contains the Biographical Sketches of the Member of Ninth Legislative Assembly elected at the 1991 General Election and the subsequent bye-election held on 16th Nov. 1991 of Badarpur Legislative Assembly Constituency. The sketches have been prepared on the basis of the information received from the members and / or the contained in the WHO'S Who published in 1988. The Assembly has a strength of 126 members. Thus in all 126 biographical sketches should have been included. But information from 24 members had not been received till the time of sending the manuscripts of the publication to the print. Their names are also given in the serial order without the biographical sketches.

BIO-DATA OF SRI HITESWAR SAIKIA

Sri Hiteswar Saikia, who had become Assam's Home Minister in 1972 at the young age of 34, has behind him a brilliant academic career and an equally illustrious record of public service.

After a brilliant academic career with laurels from several institutions at Nazira, Guwahati, Shillong and Lukhnow, Sri Saikia started taking active interest in academic development of the state. A founder member of the Gargaon College, Sri Saikia also served the College as its Vice-Principal. Besides, being devoted educationist, he was at the same time intimately connected with various social activities. He was elected Vice-Chairman of the Nazira Town Committee at the tender age of 22.

Elected to State Legislature in 1972, Sri Saikia joined the council of ministers as a Minister of State with important portfolios like Home, Health and Public Relations. His rare drive and indomitable zeal and unflagging enthusiasm led to this subsequent elevation to the cabinet rank.

Always in the forefront of youth movement in the state, Sri Saikia is a popular leader and has been widely known specially amongst the youths of Assam. His popularity got him re-elected to the Legislature in 1978 with thumping majority.

He served the State as a Cabinet Minister from December, 1980 to March, 1982 during which he held the portfolios of Education, Food and Civil supplies, Trade and Commerce, Sports and Youth Welfare.

Sri Saikia became the Chief Minister of Assam after being re-elected to the State Lagislature in February, 1983 in which post he served upto December, 1985.

Thereafter, Sri Saikia resigned from the State Lagislature to take up Gubernatorial assignment in Mizoram.

In June, 1991 Sri Saikia has been re-elected to the Assam Lagislature Assembly and has taken over the responsibility as the Chief Minister of the State for the second time on June 30, 1991.
